For Unions, Worker Centers and Community Organizations

The UCLA Labor Occupational Safety and Health (LOSH) Program, in collaboration with Los Angeles Trade Technical College (LATTC) Labor Center

24-Hour Specialist Training on Worker Occupational Safety & Health and Leadership Development

Skills to be learned include how to:

- Identify and control a full range of hazards and unsafe working conditions
- Recognize elements of an illness and injury prevention program, Cal/OSHA’s IIPP
- Communicate effectively about health and safety with your employer
- Form effective health and safety committees
- Work effectively with Cal/OSHA and Workers’ Compensation Resources
- Perform root cause analysis and develop strategies to take successful action

Course Location, Date and Time:

LATTC Labor Center
Room LA-117
400 W. Washington Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90015

Saturdays, April 11, 18, 2015 / 8:00AM-5:00PM

*April 25 optional third day to earn WOSH Specialist Certificate

To register with LATTC:

Go to the link http://college.lattc.edu/laborcenter/register-for-classes/ or call (213) 763-7129

To register to receive your State Certificate (3-day course) please contact Flor Vásquez, fvasquez@irle.ucla.edu or by fax at (310) 794-6403

For more training details contact Fernando Tapia, ftapia@irle.ucla.edu or at (310) 794-5971

LOSH is a nationally recognized center in Southern California for Spanish and English worker training, educational materials development, technical assistance and policy information in the area of workplace health and safety.

For information on current projects and resources available from LOSH visit our website at www.losh.ucla.edu, like us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/UCLALOSH, or call 310 794-5964.